DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1 and 3-17 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Independent Claims 1 and 10 have been amended to require a lateral flow process for placing elastics for side panels on an article. The prior art does not show a lateral flow process where elastics for side panels are placed on a web at an interval between the elastics. Hasse et al. [US5496429] discloses a method of forming an article with elastics for side panels comprising the steps of providing elastic, supplying first and second webs, placing elastics on the first web, bonding the second web to sandwich the elastics between the webs, and placing an absorbent between adjacent elastics. Hasse discloses a longitudinal flow process rather than a lateral flow process. Hasse also discloses the elastics can be applied in a stretched state but does not disclose cutting the elastics in a stretched state and changing the interval between the cut elastics. The following prior art shows forming side panels with elastic members VanGompel et al. [US6336922], Calvert [US2003/0112999], Mlinar et al. [US2003/0051805], and Umebayashi [US6554815]. VanGompel does not disclose a lateral flow process or a changing step. Calvert, Mlinar and Umebayashi all teach a lateral flow process but also teach continuously applying the elastic and deactivating sections of the elastic, rather than cutting elastic pieces and changing the interval between the elastic pieces. It is not obvious to modify the prior art to apply cut pieces of elastic at intervals rather than continuously applying elastics and cutting the elastic to deactivate portions. It is also not obvious to modify the process from a longitudinal flow to lateral flow.

Claims 3-7, 11, 14 and 16 depend from either Claim 1 or 10. These claims are allowable for the reasons discussed above.

Claims 8, 9 and 15 are allowable for the reasons stated in Office Action dated 6/14/2007.

Claims 12 and 17 are allowable for the reasons stated in Office Action dated 12/28/2006.

Claim 13 is allowable for the reasons stated in the Office Action dated 8/21/2006.

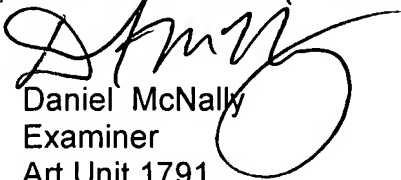

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
